39th Annual Hot Dog Caper to Bring the '90s Back

After a two-year hiatus, the Cal Poly Pomona Foundation is excited to re-introduce a beloved, fun-filled event to the Cal Poly Pomona Campus.

The Foundation's 39th Annual Hot Dog Caper is Thursday, Oct. 20 from 11:45 a.m. – 1:15 pm and will bring together students, faculty and staff to enjoy free hot dogs, chips, popsicles, drinks and live entertainment.

During the event, guests can get their photos taken and record videos at the 360 video booths, receive a free balloon animal, meet iconic '90s celebrity impersonators and visit various booths handing out giveaway items.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to sample craft sodas from Innovation Brew Works, grab a free popsicle and so much more!

Every year, hundreds of volunteers from all throughout campus, including administrators, staff and athletes, pass out free food and drinks to all attendees. Hot Dog Caper volunteers have served over 15,000 hot dogs and veggie dogs, 9,600 bags of chips, 20,000 beverages and 9,500 popsicles in previous years.

The Hot Dog Caper is made possible by over 200 volunteers, the Foundation's sponsors and partnerships with Cal Poly Pomona, Pepsi Beverages Company, Associated Students Inc., Facilities Planning & Management, Hoffs Hotdogs, First Class Vending and Bronco Athletics.

The Hot Dog Caper is just one of the many ways the Cal Poly Pomona Foundation, which opened its doors in 1966, and campus partners give back to the university. Over the past 50 years, the Foundation has given millions of dollars to the university to fund numerous campus programs, scholarships and infrastructure.
